Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On November 23, 2026, Hadron Energy, Inc. (the "Company") received a written notice (the "Notice") from the Listing Qualifications Department (the "Staff") of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq") notifying the Company that, based upon the closing bid price of the Company's common stock for the last 30 consecutive business days, the Company no longer meets the minimum bid price of $1.00 per share required for continued listing on The Nasdaq Capital Market, pursuant to Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2) (the "Minimum Bid Requirement"). The Notice has no immediate effect on the listing of the Company's securities on The Nasdaq Capital Market at this time. An indicator reflecting non-compliance will be displayed with quotation information related to the Company's securities on NASDAQ.com and NASDAQTrader.com and may be displayed by other third-party providers of market data information.

The Notice provided that, in accordance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company has a period of 180 calendar days from the date of the Notice, or until May 24, 2027 (the "Compliance Date"), to regain compliance with respect to the Minimum Bid Requirement. During this period, the Company's common stock will still continue to trade on the Nasdaq Capital Market under the symbol "HDRN". If, at any time prior to the Compliance Date, the Company's closing bid price is at least $1.00 for a minimum of ten consecutive business days, the Staff will provide written notification to the Company that it has regained compliance under the Minimum Bid Requirement and Nasdaq will close the matter.

If the Company does not regain compliance under the Minimum Bid Requirement by the Compliance Date, but does meet the continued listing requirement for the market value of publicly held shares and all other initial listing standards for The Nasdaq Capital Market, with the exception of the Minimum Bid Requirement, the Staff will inform the Company that it has either been granted an additional 180 days to regain compliance, or, if it does not appear to the Staff that the Company will be able to cure the deficiency, the Staff will provide a written notification to the Company that its securities are subject to delisting. At that time, the Company may appeal the Staff's delisting determination to a Nasdaq Hearings Panel (the "Panel"). However, there can be no assurance that, if the Company receives a delisting notice and appeals the delisting determination by the Staff to the Panel, such appeal would be successful.

The Company intends to monitor its closing bid price between now and the Compliance Date and may, if appropriate, consider available options to regain compliance under the Minimum Bid Requirement.

Although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in its forward-looking statements are reasonable, it cannot guarantee future results.
